Portland, July 27 .- Melon receipts are plentiful, and prices have dropped to $1@1.25 per hundred pounds. Considerable rivalry exists between dealers in the struggle for supremacy in the melon trade, and more melons are likely to be ordered than the market justifies.

Receipts of poultry were heavy today and, besides this, large numbers were sent in direct to uptown dealers. The result is a weaker market, though no decline has taken place.

Raisins have advanced 1-4 cent pound. Dealers should not be surprised at a further advance in the near future. Butter continues firm, as cream becomes more scarce from day to day.

Peaches were scarce today. Cheese is firm, as a result of short milk supply in the coast counties,

Oregon tomatoes have crewded the California product out for the remainder of the season.
